Enforcement Association's Christmas Party, Sheriff Tony Thompson announced the 2022 Deputy and Civilian of the Year for the Black Hawk County Sheriff's Office.

These awards and recognitions for about 10% of the entire staff (Certificate of Merit Awardees) for jobs well done during the year, were awarded Friday night at the Waterloo Moose Lodge.

What makes these recognitions even more remarkable is that they come not just from supervisors but recommendations from peers also.

Our Deputy of the Year, Zach Holbach, has been with the agency since 2013. He is currently assigned to the 3rd shift Patrol and was recognized by peers and supervisors for his being a “go-getter” and constantly being able to get things done.

“Zach has an uncanny ability to recog names. He remembers inmates, recognizes warrant holders on the streets, and aids in investigations often. So far this year, he has 106 arrests, 73 assists, and has been listed on 453 traffic stops in the county," says Sheriff Thompson.
